

Code of Conduct

All members of the Bigland Green school community are expected to interact with courtesy and respect. Everyone will strive to:

- Respect other people's culture, race, background, gender and ability.
- Respect the property of the school and other people.
- Take time to listen to each other, and support others to develop positive self-esteem.
- Support pupils achieving high standards in all aspects of the curriculum.
- Support each other with everyday challenges, and work towards creating a safe and inspiring learning environment.
- Be honest and truthful, and feel safe to admit mistakes.
- Be positive towards each other and recognise individual achievements.
- Have high expectations of each other, and cooperate with each other.
- Do the right thing all day, every day.
- Strive to implement the school's Learning Vision by meeting the identified key indicators
- Adhere to all school policies.

The school has a staff behaviour policy (code of conduct) which must be read and signed by all staff members. Staff members have a legal responsibility to ensure that the school is kept updated if there are any changes to the information that they provided on their application form and/or any other details held on school record. All staff members must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of Bigland Green School at all times.
