Autumn 2020

Reception – Bluebell and Daffodil

What children will be learning

This term our topic
Once upon a time

How you can help your child...

- Talk with your child about their day at school.
- Share their book with them and talk about the story and characters.
- Let your child see you read and write and give them opportunities to write at home.
- When you're out and about look at letters and numbers and talk about interesting things you see and hear.
- Rhyming, alliteration and segmenting and blending

Reading journals- Please share how your child reads with you at home.

Please bring your child's book bag in on a Monday, your child will take their book bag home on a Thursday.
