School teacher with a TLR for music

Salary: Main scale + TLR

Vacancy hours: Full-time or Part-time

Start date: April 2024

Closing date: Tuesday 6 February 2024 by 12:30 PM

Interview date:

Monday 19 February 2024

The successful candidate must have a good understanding of the primary national curriculum and children's learning in the EYFS. They will have a good grasp of planning, teaching and assessment in the primary phase. They will take initiatives where necessary and be driven by the school's mission to increase children's life chances through high quality education for all pupils. The successful candidate will have a TLR for music and be part of the school's curriculum leadership team.

Ideally, the candidate will have recent experience in teaching music or be a teacher with a specialism or interest in the subject. This post is open to teachers at different stages in their career as part or full-time.

- Part-time – four to five afternoons per week to teach music across the school.
- Full-time – teach music for four afternoons across the school. For the remaining time to teach English and mathematics to a group (a set) of pupils.

There will be good provision for CPD and training for the post-holder. Bigland Green offers:

- curious children who are eager to learn, and have good support from parents;
- a designated music room which is spacious and well resourced;
- a very good foundation for music teaching build over the years;
- teachers who work as a strong team, and;
- a highly supportive governing body.

Bigland Green Primary is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will require an enhanced DBS clearance. We are dedicated to equality and valuing diversity.

Potential candidates are strongly welcome/encouraged to visit the school. Please telephone or email to arrange a visit or an informal conversation with the headteacher.
