

Introduction

Attendance and punctuality is crucial to children's learning and achievement at school. When a child is absent from school they miss a great deal which affects their subsequent learning, well-being and achievement. If pupils are not at school they miss out both academically and socially. Pupils who attend late or are absent have great difficulty catching up with learning. They also develop habits which can affect their life chances. Furthermore, pupil who are late or absent can cause disruptions to the education and learning of pupils who are regular and punctual.

Bigland Green wants to ensure that all its pupils achieve their full potential. To achieve this the school needs parental support and co-operation. If pupils are not at school they cannot be taught. Parents are requested to help the school achieve the best possible standards in attendance and punctuality by following the procedures in this policy.

The school should be provided with reasons for all absences. The school will decide if the absence can be authorised or would it be categorised as unauthorised in accordance with national and local guidance. Below are some examples of authorised and unauthorised absences (the list is not exhaustive):

Examples of authorised absences

- Sickness
- Bereavement in the family
- Emergency medical appointments
- Hospital appointments that cannot be arranged outside school hours

Examples of unauthorised absences

- Not 'feeling well...'
- Visiting family members
- Shopping
- Looking after younger siblings
- Might get ill – weather is cold

Pupils should not have any un-authorised absences as it will result in the issuing of fixed penalty notices by the Local Authority to both parents. For more information about fixed penalty notices please visit <http://www.biglandgreen.towerhamlets.sch.uk/wp-content/uploads/2013/12/Penalty-Notices.pdf>

This link <https://www.gov.uk/school-attendance-absence/overview> will provide more information about the laws surrounding school attendance.

Authorised absences should be kept to a minimum. Pupils with attendance which is below 90% are categorised as 'persistent absence' by the Department for Education. Pupils who are on the persistent absence list are reported to the national and local government through the school census each half-term.

Applications for leave during term time should be discussed with the school at the earliest opportunity – please see the school’s policy for ‘Leave during term time’ for further information.

School Rules
